It is a blessing to be in the presence of a saint.

Babaji is a 100-year-old yogi who lives in Shirdi, the spiritual center of India and home of revered Shirdi Sai Baba.

When you visit the ashram of Babaji, you are given a blessing, prasad, in the form of food, clothing, and energy.

Blessed is a collection of clothing and home goods. Babaji personally blesses the collection. The ashram schools 10,000 students. A portion of Blessed proceeds will provide food to 15,000 children and devotees a day.

Blessed is committed to sustainability:
discarded flowers from sacred temples throughout India are used in the dyeing processes of the collection.
