SPECIAL BELTS PROJECT

The first and only Shoulder Straps Brand

June '17 - KATE CATE offers luxurious shoulder straps and special belts conceived for effortless and independent people, who are constantly searching for new trends and vibes.

Founded in 2017 and led by Caterina Ravaglia and Federico Brighi, KATE CATE draws inspiration by contemporary trends as well as from various forms of art, such as music, cinema, and architecture. All these elements are reinterpreted and mixed together in unexpected ways, making KATE CATE synonymous with youth and freedom.

KATE CATE's accessories are playful, easy to wear and they're an essential element of contemporary look. With many appealing styles to choose from, KATE CATE straps allow to instantly revive one's bags wardrobe. Just changing the strap gives an update and a a super-cool contemporary twist to super-classic handbags.

KATE CATE has already been spotted on Blanca Miro, Elle Ferguson, Ines Arroyo, Giulia De Lellis, Carlotta Oddi e Chiara Totire, Maud Welzen, Holly Titheridge, Lizzy Vdligt, Kayla Seah, Sonia Francex, Marina the Moss, Chiara Capitani, Rose Villain, Natalie Marthin, Nina Zilli who have been sharing its cool vibes with their followers on Instagram and other social media platforms

But KATE CATE straps are not only stylish accessories: they're also outstanding products, whose hallmarks are unique designs, first class materials and a painstakingly accurate craftsmanship.

Each strap is hand made by the best Italian leather workshops, and it's produced in limited quantity. The brand works exclusively with selected Italian leather craftsmen, whose abilities and techniques are passed down through generations, to guarantee that each single strap is meticulously hand manufactured.

A great focus is also put on raw materials: KATE CATE works only with renowned tanneries, rigorously testing each material - be it a luxurious exotic skin or butter-soft leather - to make sure it represents our high quality standards.

This process allows KATE CATE to offer an authentic product that comes straight from the hand of the artisan in a contemporary and stylish key.
