

New target dates:

I.L.M Summer Styles 2017 will take place as early as September 2 to 4, 2017

The I.L.M Summer Styles 2017 will take place sooner than before. The leading trade fair of the leather goods industry will open its doors next year as early as September 2 to 4, 2017. This is to respond to the claims and desires of the exhibitors and visitors. „The date has not just been adapted to the schedule of the international trade shows“, explains Arnd Hinrich Kappe, Managing Director of the Messe Offenbach. „The earlier date of the event also corresponds to the modified ordering behavior of the buyers; finally all the participating parties come upon optimal planning conditions“.

The I.L.M has established itself as the most important ordering platform of the industry on a national and international level. Not just the buyers for the leather goods retail trade but also the representatives of the footwear trade, textile buyers, and online traders appreciate the I.L.M as an absolutely essential fair for placing orders and doing serious business.

The next dates of the I.L.M at a glance:
