“Hakimono” means a generic term for “things walking with your feet” in Japanese.

This project, HA KI MO NO, shoes from Japan, is to encourage and develop the Japanese industry of the leather footwear, by supporting and promoting Japanese leather shoes brands which have technology to achieve high quality and creativity for good design to the world. We believe our introducing brands will match the needs of foreign buyers. This project is supported by Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry, GOJ.
